Major and Minor Notes

By JOHN OLIVER

Mrs. Ernest Mader, whose zeal in promoting the best interests of the Women's Musical club, knows no bounds, has installed herself in a box office at Heintzman's where she is tabulating details of business in connection with the Celebrity Series of Concerts being sponsored by the club this year. Seen during a moment of relaxation a few days ago, she reported that arrangements are progressing favorably for the series and the success of the season is assured.

John Charles Thomas, baritone, of the Metropolitan Opera association, will open the season with a recital on October 21. On December 3, Knud Svanholm, contralto, also of the Metropolitan, will sing. On Feb. 1, Ethel Bartlett and Ray Robertson, internationally known duo pianists, who have played with the New York Philharmonic, will play. On Feb. 15, the Comedian Harmonists, a vocal male sextet, will appear, while on March 6, Gaspar Cassella, cellist, will bring the series to a close.

The regular members of the Women's Musical club season, will commence on Oct. 1, with a recital by Reginald Bedford, pianist, of Saskatoon. During his early youth, Mr. Bedford won a scholarship from Percy Grainger and from Jeanette Durrin. In the summer of 1936 he studied at the Farnham school, where he was the only pianist selected by a board from the Paris Conservatoire, to play at the final concert. As a member of the two-piece team of Ely and Bedford he made his debut at Chicago last March, scoring no little success.

and hearty and this went for his boys, too.

The engagement at Winnipeg means that this city loses some excellent musicians, as practically all of the De Courcy orchestra were city men. Tom Gardner, Mark Morimer, Chester Lambertson, "Windy" Windsor, Frank Clevely, Dave McCannchie, Ralph Mansford, all well known here, will be lost to musical circles—at least for some time.

In addition, Mrs. Gardner, widely known for her singing, teaching and other musical activities, also will be lost—also it is hoped, only for a short time.

Manager Claude Finlay of the Macdonald hotel, announces that during the coming season, opening on Saturday, Oct. 1, the supper dance music at the Macdonald will be provided by Stan Ingala and his orchestra of nine pieces. Mr. Ingala already is well known here, having played at the hotel all last season with his band. The Countess of Becher-nigh Chapter of the I.O.O.F. is sponsoring the opening supper dance of the season on Saturday next, Oct. 1. Mr. Ingala and his orchestra are assured of a warm welcome, as they made a favorable impression here last season.

Miss Piper is continuing her work in opera and concert. Italy and her many Alberta friends will watch with interest the progress she is expected to make in the older countries.

As stated in this column last week, Joe De Courcy and his orchestra, who played at the Macdonald hotel last season and who were at Jasper Park Lodge all summer, will be heard at the Cave, a Winnipeg entertainment rendezvous, due passed through here last Saturday, looking hale

What's Now On The RECORDS

BEING A REVIEW OF THE BEST NOW BEING TRANSCRIBED FOR GRAMOPHONES

By JOHN OLIVER

Diversity of color and contributing material are features of the latest RCA-Victor records to hand. In the latest parcel there is a variety which will appeal in the total, to a large circle of music lovers.

Of the many orchestras that play for Victor records, the Philadelphia Orchestra has contributed by far the largest number of discs. This mighty organization, which, with the New York Philharmonic and the Boston Symphony stands in the front rank of United States orchestras, is sometimes conducted by Leopold Stokowski and sometimes by Eugene Ormandy.

Under Stokowski's baton the Philadelphia play the Andante from Cesar Franck's Grand Piece Symphonique, transcribed by Charles O'Connell and Tebalkovsky's Solitude, opus 32, No. 6, transcribed for orchestra by Stokowski himself.

The Andante is a wonderful movement in the great Krakow work, Grand Piece Symphonique, which appears to embody much of that unusual combination of humanity and spirituality frequently appearing in his music. This movement has been transcribed for orchestra without undue elaboration and with the attention to subtle and delicate coloring which the music seems to demand and which can be brought to it by the orchestra.

Huge Western Canada Wheat Crop Is Standing Up Well For Quality

NEW GRADING REGULATIONS HELP GRAINS

No. 1 Northern Wheat Similar To 1937, Others Grade Higher

WINNIPEG, Sept. 24.—Protein content of Western Canadian wheat crop compares favorably with that of last year, says a report issued by the grain research laboratory at the board of grain commissioners for Canada.

Protein content, the index of baking quality, is reported similar to last year in No. 1 northern wheat while No. 2, 3 and 4 northern are slightly higher. Higher values in No. 3 and 4 northern are attributed to revision of grading regulations.

Protein content, the index of baking quality, is reported similar to last year in No. 1 northern wheat while No. 2, 3 and 4 northern are slightly higher. Higher values in No. 3 and 4 northern are attributed to revision of grading regulations.

The analysis covered 2014 samples of hard red spring grains. Protein content was computed on a 153 per cent moisture basis. The following table shows the range of mean protein content of average samples this year with last year's figures in brackets.

The Record Buster

By POP

Well, all be at the air races today, so I haven't much to tell you.

At any rate, we're glad to turn out to be such a fast one. It will give your model airplanes an opportunity to demonstrate their best performance and we certainly expect to see some records broken. With the wide variety of the airfield gives, there should be some really outstanding flights and the smooth tarmac is an ideal place for take-offs.

There will be distinguished observers watching the races today, besides civic officials, many of them being fine pilots will be on hand. Though they fly the big airplanes that you will see day after day, they all have a keen interest in model airplanes.

On Monday I expect to be writing my last column and in it I shall publish the names of all the winners in the Jimmie Allen air races. Those of you who were not able to attend and who sent your planes to be flown by others will see just who won.

I'll ask the judges for some of the points on which they made their awards and write them out for you to guide you in your future experiments.

Well, catch. I know you have had a lot of fun building your model, but experimenting with them. It has been fun for me to be following you along and trying to give you a few hints. I hope they have been helpful.

Next year we'll probably have more Jimmie Allen air races and in the meantime, I know you will be keeping right at the job of building and developing new and better models.

Answer: Wrong. All water boiling at a certain altitude is the same temperature whether it is boiling furiously or very slowly. At sea level this temperature is 212 degrees, and for every 300 feet gained in altitude, the boiling point is one degree less.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly

It's The Day
Golf Feature
Red Decides

THIS may become a red-letter day for Edmonton football fans before the end of the season. The Red Hawks are expected to win the 11th championship of the city in the first two, but today is different.

The Edmonton club is not yet at maximum strength, but Coach Bob Frits estimates that the team has improved 50 per cent since its road trip to Regina and Winnipeg. It strikes me that Bob is being conservative. The team certainly shows more improvement than that in practice, but of course practice and games are bit different.

At the start of the season the Booster Club warned the fans that it was quite possible the Red Hawks would have to play a number of games without a win. Building a club of conference standard in one season is a herculean job. However, Bob Frits has been performing wonders with the material he has to work with. In fact he has made such progress that a win today is not just a fond hope. Should the Hawks get that victory, you can justly credit Frits with an amazing coaching feat.

Bruins Drop Pirate Lead to Two Games

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24.—Chicago Cubs bounced back into the thick of the fight for the National League pennant, taking both ends of a doubleheader from the Phillies 3-2 and 7-6 to climb to within two games of the pace-setting Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Bruins came from behind in each game, winning the second with a thrilling four-run rally in the ninth, clinched by Rip Collins' double with the bases full. An eighth inning homer by Augie Galan won the first game.

First Game: Chicago 3, Philadelphia 2. Second Game: Chicago 7, Philadelphia 6. The Cubs are now 11th in the league, while the Pirates are 1st.

BOB CUMMINGS TRIUMPHS IN ROUSING MAT JOUST

Dandy Dizzy Davis Taken Two Straight

THAT haughty son of Texas, Dandy Dizzy Davis, conqueror of Gumar "Soldier" Thomas in one of Edmonton's most bitterly fought ring feuds, was humbled last night, humbled by that mighty Irish grapple, Bob "Bad Boy" Cummings in the main event of Promoter Mike Cutchner's wrestling card at the Memorial Hall.

The "Bad Boy" took Davis via the straight fall route, winning the first with his favorite hold, a punishing leg-breaker. The second came as Davis failed to keep his shoulders off the canvas while applying a surf-board on Cummings. And the semi-main affair was another straight-fall match as "Soldier" Thomas disposed of Larry Jacobsen in quick fashion.

Wenstob Uncovers New Punching Power in Gym

Eddie Wenstob can stick with his new hitting style when he tangles with Jack Tebo of Fairview, here Tuesday night for the western Canada heavyweight championship. He will be the most deadly Wenstob that Edmonton fans have ever seen—the puncher that his physique intended him to be.

Yesterday Fred Osborne sparred with Wenstob. The promoter was anxious to see how much improvement Eddie had made in his punching recently and Eddie needed sparring partners badly. Fred is still fast and clever and he blocked all the power punches Wenstob threw at his head, but just the same they staggered him.

He's finally got into punching Osborne and he's got the edge. "I've been working on my punches for a long time," Wenstob said. "I've been working on my punches for a long time." He's finally got into punching Osborne and he's got the edge.

National Hockey Rules Given Thorough Shakeup

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—The National Hockey League rules committee agreed on a number of rule changes, designed principally to speed up play, which will be presented for final action to a full meeting of the league today.

A primary rule was imposed on all players except the goalkeeper, who will be allowed to use his hands to stop the puck, but not to throw it.

Major recommendations will be made on the following: A player who is injured by a foul play, except the goalkeeper, who will be allowed to use his hands to stop the puck, but not to throw it.

Directs

DONALD B. MCGARVEY, manager of Foster and McGarvey's new funeral home.

Foster and McGarvey Funeral Home is developed for those with whom it does business. The management of this firm realizes that it is dealing with persons who for the most part are suffering from the loss of a dear one, and they bring their sympathy and understanding into their association.

The fundamental objective of the with men and women with whom service can have close contact and that they are able to give the best of service to the dear ones who are leaving the world. The funeral director is the one who is in charge of the funeral service. From a reasonable casket to the most elaborate and expensive, Foster and McGarvey have shown all.

If it is distasteful for persons to make all the arrangements themselves, Foster and McGarvey will take care of absolutely every thing. It is the personalized service which you receive at this firm's funeral home which has made it one of the best in the west.

One of the outstanding features of the new building is the chapel which has accommodations for 100 persons.

An able staff is well trained in all phases of the funeral service and is available to the public at any time. The funeral director

WE ANNOUNCE...

THE

Opening

OF OUR

New and Modern

FUNERAL HOME

Our new Chapel has been designed and built so that the duties of a Funeral Director may be carried out better, and more fittingly.

In keeping with old traditions, in our modern and larger Chapel, Mourners can listen to and see the Funeral Service from a private family room, separated from the congregation.

For their further convenience, the Mourners may enter and leave the Chapel by a private entrance, giving access to waiting cars. In fact, everything has been done to improve the kindly and helpful feeling that prevails in our entire organization and service, in times of bereavement.

We are proud to say that this service has been facilitated given by our organization. That "Our Service" has been carried out in a satisfactory manner is evidenced by our need of a larger and modern funeral home.

Foster-McGarvey Make Reputation In Business Here

Well-known in Edmonton for many years, the firm of Foster and McGarvey, funeral directors, has made a reputation for itself of which it may well be proud. For some time it was known as the Foster funeral home, but in 1927 Donald D. McGarvey took over the management, and two years later bought enough stock in the business to make him a partner, and the firm of Foster and McGarvey was born.

A large staff of highly-trained personnel is necessary for an undertaker to do his best, and Mr. McGarvey has all of these qualifications, as testified by the impressive list of conventions which he has attended.

Every phase of the undertaking business is carried right on in the home, and all services are rendered without added cost to the customer. There is no need for the bereaved one to make more than one trip to the home, and they only to give the terminally ill death with calmness and ease. The cost, including the funeral in detail which is necessary in such cases, is all taken care of by the firm.

Experienced embalmers, with knowledge of the latest methods of embalming, do all of that type of work in clean, sanitary apartments, which might easily be taken for a hospital nurses.

There are so many branches to the funeral directing business that constant reading and attendance at conventions is necessary for the funeral director to keep up to date.

For the funeral director to be able to give the best of service to the public, he must be able to handle all phases of the business.

FATHER THINKS MISSING GIRL STILL LIVING

After taking three children to the Edmonton grounds, leaving Grace Holloway, sister of the missing girl, and Lucetta Henderson at 118 Avenue and 73 Street.
Dorothy, Nellie Adams, who lives in the north bank of the river under the Claude Bar bridge, where she pointed out where she had pushed the little girl in the water and "kissed" the baby.
Nellie said she saw the girl on the back of the same size as a small one Adams girl and called Joan.
Appeal for Boy Scouts to take part in the search for the missing girl was broadcast Sunday morning, and an organized party started from the Riverdale Hotel, west of Edmonton, at 1 p.m. Saturday.

SAFE AT HOME

Safe at home in their family, who, with Joan and Lucetta Henderson, 1084 20 Street, until Saturday in the Green park, west of Adams, who, on Sunday, took away and took them to the Edmonton grounds, where after about 12 hours the girl was found. The two older children and the baby were found safe and sound, and the girl was found safe and sound.

FOUND CRYING

Grace Holloway and Lucetta Henderson were found crying at 118 Avenue and 73 Street, where the girl was found. The girl was found safe and sound, and the girl was found safe and sound.

Britain Teaches Her Youth To Fly

The first school for members of Britain's Civil Air Guard for civilians willing to use their flying knowledge in the service of the nation in wartime has been opened at Hamilton. Here two student fliers are being told what the various instruments are for in their first lesson. More than 1,000 students have been enrolled, and 15 have been chosen in the first group to be trained.

His Job Is War

There is a considerable element of the population inclined to view war with Germany as inevitable some day and that Hitler's interference at (Godesberg) has shown conclusively he is not content with Britain's friendship. They declared if Hitler's ambitions for world hegemony have to be thwarted, it is just as well to have a showdown now while Great Britain and France are able to meet the challenge.

FATALISTIC VIEW

Many were inclined to take a fatalistic view of the situation. "If war comes there is nothing we can do about it," they said, while a jobless man marching in a band on the street caused considerable amusement with the following prediction: "War Will Solve the Unemployment Problem."

Over the weekend Labor organizations have arranged to hold nearly 2,000 meetings to demonstrate against "the shameful assault on the Czechoslovak people."

St. Paul Farmer Grows 'Em Large Potato Testifies

When J. A. Maurice, general secretary of the Alberta Potato Growers' League, staggered up the stairs to the editorial office of The Bulletin, there was a momentary doubt as to whether he could get up the stairs. It was a long climb, but he did it.

AVERAGE MAN IN BRITAIN IS HOPEFUL

Spirits Remain Buoyant Despite Ominous War Rumblings

By EDWIN JOHNSON
LONDON, Sept. 21.—Even as ominous rumblings of war draw closer and louder in the hearts of Britains' millions, the spirit of the average man on the street, which has undergone the severest strain in recent days, remains comparatively buoyant and hopeful today.

Workers straining to buy and underfed in offices and factories, the average citizen clung desperately to the hope Prime Minister Chamberlain would yet succeed in his mission of peace. They were heartened by the Prime Minister's statement at the conclusion of the last meeting with Chamberlain, which was a complete breakdown, and again, as he left for London. "We must still make great efforts to save the peace of Europe."

There is a considerable element of the population inclined to view war with Germany as inevitable some day and that Hitler's interference at (Godesberg) has shown conclusively he is not content with Britain's friendship. They declared if Hitler's ambitions for world hegemony have to be thwarted, it is just as well to have a showdown now while Great Britain and France are able to meet the challenge.

But the average man on the street shrinks from the horrors of possible war and feels while even the slightest chance of averting power with honor and justice means no efforts should be spared to save the peace of Europe.

Many were inclined to take a fatalistic view of the situation. "If war comes there is nothing we can do about it," they said, while a jobless man marching in a band on the street caused considerable amusement with the following prediction: "War Will Solve the Unemployment Problem."

Over the weekend Labor organizations have arranged to hold nearly 2,000 meetings to demonstrate against "the shameful assault on the Czechoslovak people."

5699 לשנה טובה תפתנו A Happy New Year 1938 1939

Rabbi I. Hoff Gives Peace At New Year

The Jewish people are now experiencing one of the most significant epochs in their history. In the course of 1938, since the destruction of the Temple, the Jews have witnessed unimagined persecutions. The fact that we were once a people living in our own land and the creators of an outstanding culture was ignored and forgotten. The persecutions of the Jews in every field of human endeavor ever fully appreciated.

However, in our day, we see the resurrection and rehabilitation of their ancient people through the initiative of the British Government. It is now generally recognized that the land of Israel must be restored to the sons of Israel or at least in a part of them.

On the eve of this New Year, let us hope and pray that the nations of the world will enable us to realize our ancient and cherished dream and that peace and justice will appear from the face of the earth.

Rabbi I. Hoff

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, SATURDAY, SEPT. 24, 1938.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD by JULIANO FERGUSON

1 LA BREA PITCH LAKE!

INSIDE THE CITY LIMITS OF LOS ANGELES, THERE MAY BE FOUND TODAY POOLS OF ASPHALT, WHERE GAS BUBBLES RISE AND BURST ON THE SURFACE; AND IN THESE UNIMPRESSIVE POOLS, SCIENTISTS HAVE FOUND A MOST ASTONISHING HISTORY OF THE ANCIENT ANIMAL LIFE ON EARTH.

2 FAR BACK IN THE PLEISTOCENE ERA, THESE POOLS BUBBLED AND SHONE IN THE SUNLIGHT, AS THEY DO TODAY, AND ANIMALS FROM FAR AND WIDE CAME TO DRINK THE WATER THAT ACCUMULATED ON THE SURFACE.

3 BUT THE LAKES WERE NOT WHAT THEY SEEMED. MAMMOTHS, BISON, AND OTHER LARGE ANIMALS BY HUNDREDS, WADED IN TO QUENCH THEIR THIRST AND WERE TRAPPED IN THE MIRE.

4 RAVENOUS, FLESH-EATING ANIMALS...WOLVES, BEARS, SABER-TOOTHED TIGERS AND LIONS...CAME TO FEED ON THE UNFORTUNATE VICTIMS AND THEY THEMSELVES PERISHED.

5 PERFECTLY PRESERVED IN THE STICKY TAR, THE BONES OF THIS ANCIENT ANIMAL PARADE HAVE BEEN RESTORED, AND TODAY, BECAUSE OF LA BREA'S DEATH TRAP, WE MAY SEE WITH OUR OWN EYES THE LIFE OF A MILLION YEARS AGO.

ALBERTA'S GREATEST SATURDAY COMIC PAGES

EDMONTON, ALTA., SEPT. 24, 1938

FOLLOWING UP THE TIP OF A STRANGE WOMAN WHO TOLD HIM TO INVESTIGATE THE CONSIGNEE OF THE TANK CAR OF MOLASSES, TRACY DISCOVERS THAT THE MOLASSES IS BEING SHIPPED TO A POINT IN AN EXTREMELY MOUNTAINOUS SECTION OF THE NORTH-WEST.

WE AND PAT PATTON TAKE THE FIRST PLANE TO THAT SECTION, AND PASSING THEMSELVES OFF AS VACATIONISTS - LEISURELY BUT CAUTIOUSLY COME ACROSS A HUGE EDIFICE LOCATED IN THE HEART OF THE MOUNTAINS.

OH, BY THE WAY, GUIDE, WHAT DID YOU SAY THAT BUILDING IS DOWN THERE?

WELL, SIR, I'LL TELL YOU, MISTER, THAT'S A FUNNY THING.

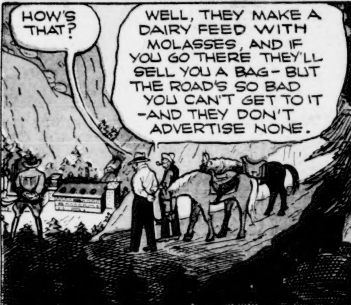

WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

THAT'S KNOWN AS THE SMITHLY DAIRY FEED CO. - BUT I DON'T RECKON THEY SELL HARDLY ANY FEED.

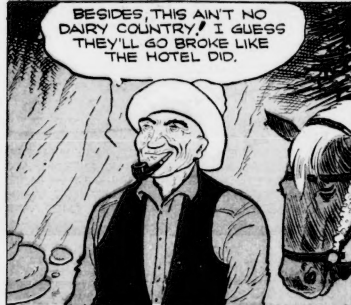

HOW'S THAT?

WELL, THEY MAKE A DAIRY FEED WITH MOLASSES, AND IF YOU GO THERE THEY'LL SELL YOU A BAG - BUT THE ROAD'S SO BAD YOU CAN'T GET TO IT - AND THEY DON'T ADVERTISE NONE.

BESIDES, THIS AIN'T NO DAIRY COUNTRY! I GUESS THEY'LL GO BROKE LIKE THE HOTEL DID.

LIKE WHAT HOTEL?

YOU SEE, THAT USED TO BE A BIG RESORT HOTEL TILL THE DEPRESSION CAME ALONG, THEN -

OH -

COME ON, YOU BIRDS - MOVE ALONG. THIS IS PRIVATE GROUND, YOU KNOW.

OH, YES, SIR - SORRY, MISTER - WE WERE JUST ENJOYING THE SCENERY.

OKAY, BEAT IT NOW.

I DON'T KNOW WHAT WE'VE HIT ON, PAT, BUT IT'S RED HOT, BOY - IT'S RED HOT!

HEY DICK - LOOK! THERE'S A PLANE!

IT'S LANDING ON A FIELD BACK OF THAT BUILDING!

WHERE'S KARPIS?

IN PLANT NUMBER TWO, M'AM.

MARRO - MARRO!
